Fox Valley, Saskatchewan, 19-16-2S-W3.

The small private Seventh Day Adventist Cemetery at this location was probably obliterated when the east/west highway was upgraded some years ago. At one time a small cross with a wreath was planted in the south highway ditch, the cross was not there as at April 24, 1997. The spot was one half mile south and one mile east of Fox Valley, Saskatchewan.

This Seventh Day Adventist cemetery is very difficult to reach by car, travel two and one half miles south, two miles east, two miles south on grid roads, then one mile east and one half mile north on a very sandy prairie trail. The overgrown, fenced plot is about 150 yards into a field east of the road and also about a quarter mile south of the north property line. A site visit June 07, 1997, confirmed there to be four grave markers in the one acre plot. The graves with markers are identified with an asterisk.

Parkhill Municipal Cemetery, Fox Valley, Saskatchewan.

Parkhill Cemetery is located in the northwest corner of SW 22-17-26- W3, one half mile south, one mile west and one mile south of Fox Valley, Saskatchewan. The road leading into the cemetery south of highway #371 would not be passable if wet. The four acre plot requires much attention, the fence is in decent condition but vegetation should be cut. There are only eight legible markers, a few other grave locations are outlined by bits and pieces of rotting wooden crosses. Site visit April 24, 1997. We believe this site was occupied by a Lutheran church.

Neu Landau or Haverhill Catholic Cemetery NW 10-17-27-W3.

The land for the school also used as a church at this site was donated by George Glauser. This plot is located about one quarter mile south of the north property line and 250 yards east of the north south road. Travel seven miles west of Fox Valley, on highway #3 71 then two and one quarter miles south. We assume that this plot was probably about eight acres in size at one time, today all that remains is a narrow strip of land with four visible metal grave markers. Some callous soul has taken the barbed wire that once surrounded the plot and has wrapped it around the two biggest metal crosses. This cemetery will most certainly disappear within a short time unless action is taken to prevent that unfortunate event from occurring. We visited the site June 07, 1997.

Rastadt (Holy Trinity) Catholic Church and Cemetery, Fox Valley, Saskatchewan.

A good graveled grid road takes us to this well maintained cemetery one and one half miles south, nine miles east and three miles north of Fox Valley, Saskatchewan. There is an excellent fence surrounding the plot, grass is neatly trimmed, several of the markers had been knocked over, we suspect by cattle as there was some fresh evidence. Two of the markers were damaged, we reset all but one of the stones. The cemetery is in the southwest corner of SW 09-18-24-W3 with the church in the NE 05-18-24-W3. The church, now a machine shed is still on the site, this was once a beautiful, large building with a full basement. This cemetery was in use from early 1916, with the last burial October 31, 1950. As at April 24, 1997.
