St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery, Richmond, Saskatchewan.

The first mass was celebrated in summer 1912, at the Joseph Brilz home, four miles south and two miles east of Richmond, the priest traveled from Maple Creek, Saskatchewan. The first Catholic families in the area included; George Fleck, George Jager, John Pingert, Andrew Kuntz, Chris Stark, Pete Martin, Ambrose Hepfner, Joe Glaser, John Kunz, John Koch and Mike Stein. Another group of Catholic families lived northwest of Richmond, they celebrated mass in the A.J. McIntosh and John Stodalka homes.

The Bishop paid his first visit to the area in August 1916, he administered Confirmation at the Brilz home and witnessed First Communion of the children.

The congregation started using Haverhill school as a church August 1917. A meeting later that year determined a church was needed, each family was assessed $60.00 towards construction of a new building.

The church known as St. Mary's was built on the John Stodalka property one mile west and two miles north of Richmond.

The Haverhill and Richmond parishes amalgamated in 1928, at this time the church was moved from the Stodalka farm into Richmond, an addition was made in 1929. This building was used until 1958, when it was moved to Golden Prairie, and a new church was built in Richmond.

The first resident priest, Father George Walliser, served from 1937 to 1939, Father James Schnerch replaced him in 1939. Father Walliser returned in 1949 and served Richmond and Schuler until 1953. The following priests also served this parish, Father Carl Prothman, 1953 to 1962, Father Thomas Schnerch 1962 to 1969, Father Francis Lenz 1969 to 1971, Father Henry Wagner 1971 to 1976 followed by Father Joe Blatz.

The four acre cemetery is located just south of the railway tracks about one half mile east on highway 371 and about one quarter mile south of Richmond, Saskatchewan. The legal land description is NE 23-17-28- W2. A site visit June 07, 1997, found the plot in good condition, there is a chain fence along the east side, the fence on the north side has fallen down. This cemetery is still being actively used. The names marked with an asterisk were confirmed as interred here during the site visit. The cemetery is split into two distinct portions, with children interred in the northwest corner and the adults in the southwest corner.
