

Westerham, Saskatchewan, Congregational Cemetery.

The church located at this site operated from about 1910, to 1955, when the congregation merged with the Leader Congregational Church.

This cemetery is located seven miles west of highway #21, west of Leader, Saskatchewan, then one mile south on a grid road. The one half acre plot is surrounded with a good page wire fence, grass has not been cut in years, information was gathered from about fifteen grave markers, there are also two wooden fence enclosures inside perimeter fence and a few other pieces of wood mark other graves. The cemetery is in the northwest corner of SW 16-22-27- W3. This piece of property was originally owned by H. Elsasser. The site was visited June 16, 1997.

During the summer of 1999, fourteen or fifteen graves were found outside the fenced area, the graves were located with the help of Bill Wardill. Crosses were placed on all the known graves and a large stone marker with a suitable plaque were set in place. The efforts of Tim Geiger and Paul Nagel from Leader, Saskatchewan, must be recognized for they were responsible for organizing the work parties. The R.M. of Happy Land funded the restoration project.
