Hilda vicinity, Seventh Day Adventist

SW 15-18-1-W4, one mile west and two miles north of Hilda at the junction of Township Road 182 and Range Road 13 on the John Walter homestead

The church at this site was active from 1919 to the 1940s. In August 1996, the long vacant building was moved to the Medicine Hat, Alberta Exhibition Grounds where it is now part of a heritage village.

We attempted to locate the burial records for this cemetery with the help of the Seventh Day Adventist Church at Medicine Hat, Alberta. A conversation with Mr. Edgar Boschee 10 Apr 1997, led us to believe that the records have been lost. The Church Conference does not have the records.

Irvine vicinity, 2 Newburg Evangelical

(1) location: SE 16-10-2-W4, at the junction of Township Road 102 and Range Road 23, two miles east and nine miles south of Irvine
(2) location: SE 4-10-2-W4, just north of SH 515 on Range Road 23, west side of road or two miles east and eleven miles south of Irvine

This congregation met at the above (1) location from 1907 to 1945. In 1959, an old school house was moved from the Woolchester area to the (2) location. Services continued there until 1970 when the church was again closed. All that remains at the two locations are badly neglected cemeteries. In 1996, there was no evidence of any burials at the (2) location although the grounds are fenced. Allister Otto who lives just northwest of (1) location states that there were twenty-nine burials here, and that some markers are covered by blow dirt. Several sources indicate the following:

Bechthold, Heinrich: 16 May 1873/10 Feb 1940, husband of Margarethe

Information from the Irvine, Alberta, history book indicates the following are probably interred here:

Arnold, Albina (Melham): died 1905, wife of John Arnold
