

Burstall Baptist Cemetery, Burstall, Saskatchewan.

The church known as the Liebenthal Baptist Church was built in 1914, as a member of the General Missionary Society of the German Baptist Churches of North America. This church operated in the country location until 1929 when it was moved to its present location at Burstall, Saskatchewan. At this time, January 11, 1929, it was renamed the Burstall Baptist Church.

The church operated until 1963 when all assets were turned over to the North American Baptist Association at Forest Park, Illinois. The property was managed by the town of Burstall, Saskatchewan, until it was sold to St. Michael's Catholic Church.

The cemetery is located two miles south of Burstall, Saskatchewan. The legal land description is NE 23-19-29-W3M. The plot is in dire need of maintenance. Most of the fence has fallen down, soil drifting from the west had completely covered many graves and markers, this soil had been removed from those graves that have markers. The records for this plot are not available leaving the number of burials unknown. The church was moved into Burstall, Saskatchewan, many years ago and today, September 02, 1996, it serves as a workshop.
