

Church of God Cemetery, Schuler, Alberta.

The first gathering of the church was a tent meeting held in the Knoblich school district in 1930. Services were held in that school and later at Melba School as well. Services were conducted by pastors from Medicine Hat, Alberta. Some of the pastors that served were Reverend Boes, Reverend J. Wiens, Reverend C. Buteriet and Mr. and Mrs. H.G. Babel.

After several years of holding regular services in the schools, a building was moved from the Beacon Hill school district. This thirty five mile move was made with a team of twenty eight horses.

Pastors at the new church included S. Jans, J. Hoffman and William Rabel. At times Bible school students Dave and Vi Settle and Stan Hoffman conducted the services.

A new parsonage was built in the hamlet of Schuler, Alberta, in 1956 and a new church was built there as well in 1960, the old church building was moved from the property in 1960.

This cemetery is located five miles west of Schuler, Alberta, at the crossroads of range road 23 and township road 162. The cemetery is now a small 8 foot by 12 foot fenced parcel some 100 yards north of township road 162. The cemetery record is with Wilbur and Evelyn Boettcher at Schuler, Alberta. Legal land description is SW 15-16-02- W 4. As at August 30, 1996. Only one burial took place at this location.
